take home. In this way they learned, by doing.

The classes were completed in Judging schools and the names of "graduates" sent in to the Executive Secretary.

Several of our members have been asked to judge in other Shows throughout the State, also many talks on Hibiscus have been given by our members to Garden Clubs on the local level and in nearby cities.

At each meeting during the year a table has been set up with blooms and the members have competed in identifying them. In this way, we have become better acquainted with the correct names of the different varieties.

REPORT ON NOMENCLATURE LIST

Norman A. Reasoner, Chairman of the Nomenclature Committee reports that the basic list of varieties is about complete. Describing new varieties is a never ending proposition, but the list is getting up to date as new seedlings and imports are evaluated. Actual date of going to press has not been set, but it should be in the near future.
